Glenwood High School

Canton, Ohio

1958

Glenwood High School, which opened its doors to students for the first time last fall, was constructed by the Melbourne Construction Company located at 5520 Cleveland Avenue North. The faculty and student body have enjoyed their activities in this beautiful building, and will continue to do so in the future.

In September shining glass doors and smooth polished desks waited within this giant structure designated as a place of learning. Not until these doors were opened and the desks filled with students did this building become Glenwood High School. At that moment the spirit of Glenwood was created and began to grow. We who must leave here so soon dedicate this book to more than a building of stone and mortar which time will destroy. We dedicate it to that ever-growing spirit, to the helping hand of a teacher, to classmates, friends, memories, and to those who come after us.

PATRONS & INDEX . . . 101

Of Glenwood there are happy thoughts.
We have our sad ones too.
But this first year at Glenwood
Has found us true to Red and Blue.

Many times in future years,
We'll remember so very clear,
All of the wonderful people we met
And the friendships we held so dear.

JUNIOR CLASS

Preparations for Glenwood's first prom began in the first month of school when John Harris, Ted Rubin, Karen Fleming, and Dave Hanle were elected class officers. Soon the school was covered with posters advertising a pop bottle drive and the student body was invaded by magazine subscription salesmen. The class reached its financial goal and the super-selling boys were partied by the less-ambitious girls.

People like Eleanor Swartz, F.H.A. president; Duane Warner, officer in the State Student Library Association; and the many others who took part in everything from speech to cheerleading have proven this to be a good junior class, ready and willing to lead the school as seniors next year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Glenwood's first sophomore class was organized last September when Bruce Vogelgesang, Frank Pierson, Donna Myers, and Mickey Psolla were elected class officers. Apparently, these tenth graders went speedily to their books because they have consistently led all the classes in the number of students on the honor roll.

This enthusiasm spread into the junior varsity, the Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y, intramurals, speech, and music, where the sophomores have piled up an admirable list of honors.

Badminton, anyone?

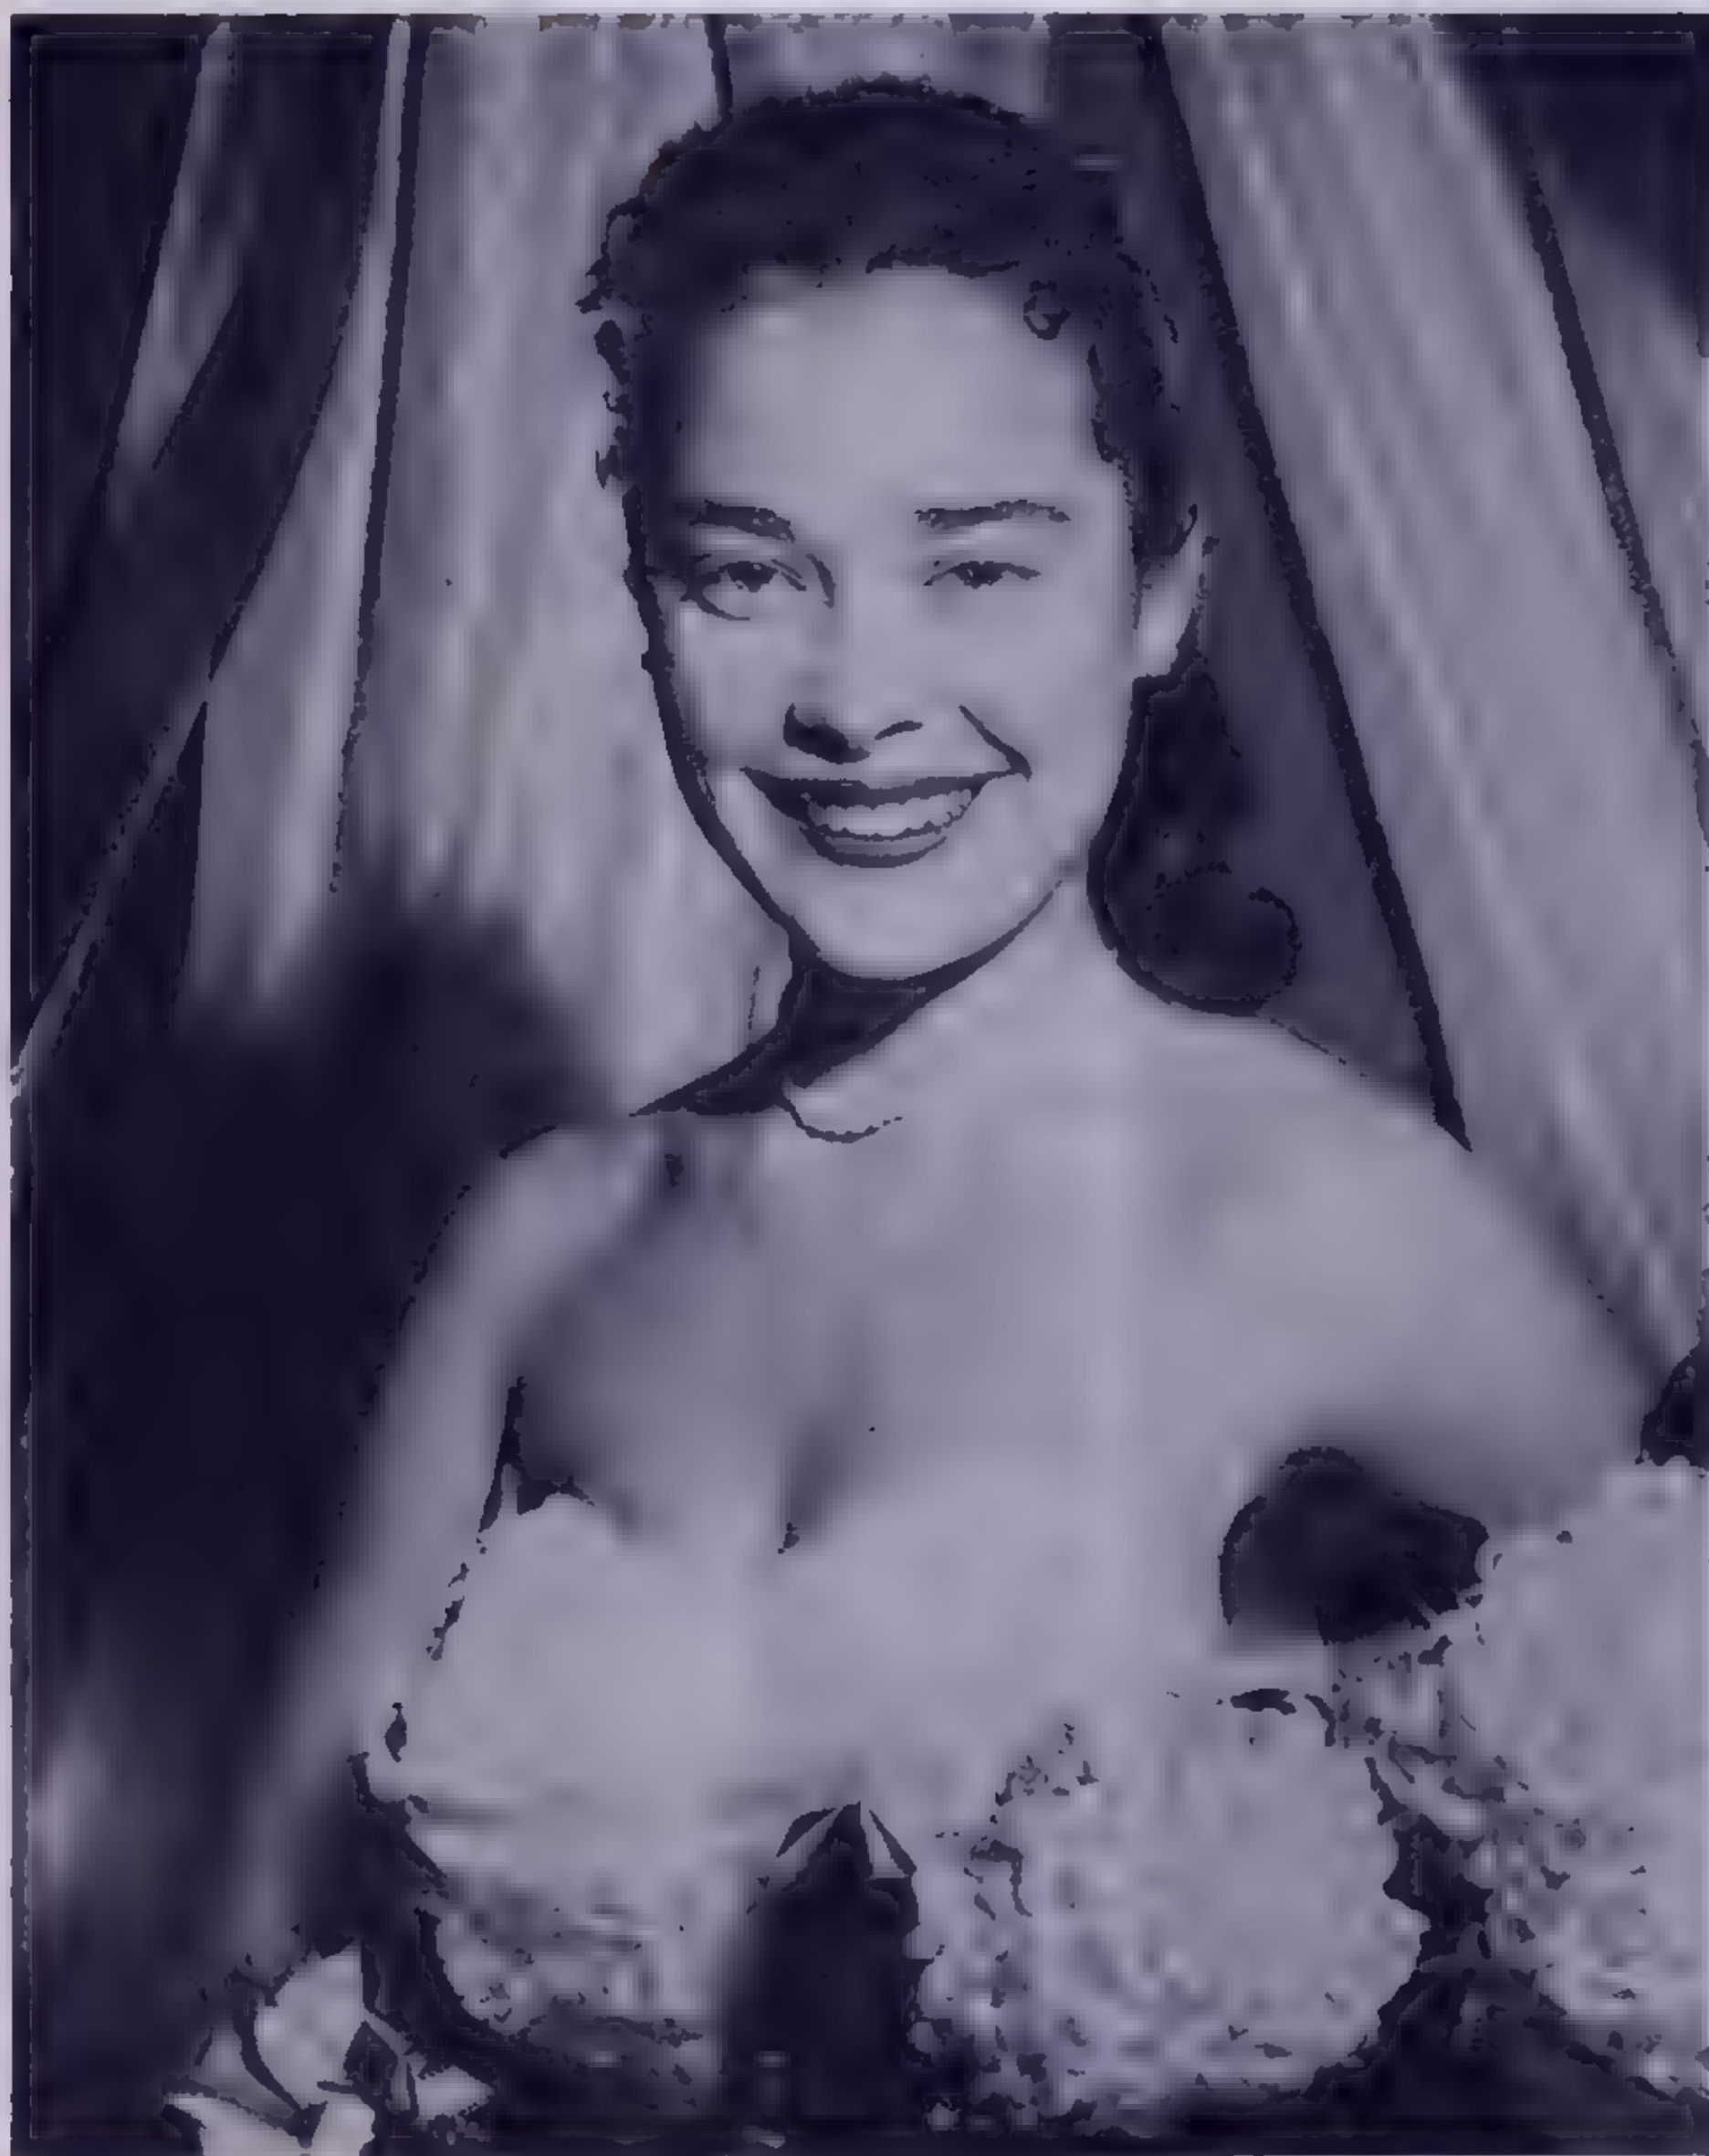

*This first year at Glenwood was loads of fun,
Our pep rallies were full of spirited noise;
The activities offered each one
A chance to share sorrows and joys.*

ACTIVITIES

OUR QUEEN . . .

JUDY ROBERTSON

. . . AND HER PRINCESSES

Left to right: Pearl Davis, Sue McMullen, Judy Robertson, Joyce Board, Judy Brumbaugh.

Queen Judy waves to her many fans!

Glenwood High School students turned out in droves

On November 8, 1957, and they froze!

What was happening, you may ask.
Why, one of Glenwood's most outstanding tasks!

For Judy Robertson, our first Football Queen,
By all the student body was to be seen.

And how the wind did howl and blow
When she was crowned during the half-time show.

Yes, our queen made a lovely sight,
And brightened our spirits on that cold winter night.

Her princesses, Joyce, Judy, Pearl, and Sue,
Made another pretty sight for you.

So, to all these girls our school gives a salute,

'Cause we think you all are really cute!

Yes, that's for sure, we couldn't get through

They checked our hall passes day after day,
So in the study hall we then did stay!
Oh, they represented us right to a "T"
And that's important, don't you agree?
From year to year, our council's work will glow
And we must help to make it so!!

National Honor Society held its induction
When twenty-four leaders received recognition.
Members of the junior and senior classes

Selection was honorable to those very few
Who are active in many things old and new.

Oh yes, their grades are high, as you may have

'Cause they're the ones who always pass the rough tests.
So, to these very fine young ladies and gents,

Faculty did it in pep rally, you know.

VARSITY

Glenwood did not win too many games this year but they showed a lot of spirit in their playing. It was a big job for Coach Smith to put together a team that he had never worked with before.

Near the end of the season, the team gave a preview of what to look forward to next year.

FRONT ROW: Chuck Essinger, Danny Farmer, Dave Ewing, Hal Jones, Carl Chiofolo, Ed Fletcher, Bill Tarr, Larry Levine, Larry Mottice, Frank Williams, Ted Armstrong, Terry McKinney.

As can be seen by the scores on the right, the reserves didn't have a very good year. The cause of this was that the varsity drew some of their players from them. These boys had little experience, but they still showed lots of spirit throughout the entire season.

Their last game was played with Canton Lehman and those who saw it know the fight our reserves gave to their opponents.

That first impressive performance was continued at every football game throughout the season. This is truly a band of which to be proud.

A CAPPELLA

Ambition seems to be the keyword in the vocabulary of Glenwood's music department. Determination and many hours of hard but enjoyable work led to the first annual "Autumn Festival of Song." The audience was delighted not only with the variety and quality of the music, but with the beautiful robes paid for from the proceeds of the concert. Recordings of Christmas music by the chorus were broadcast over two local radio stations on December 21 and 24. February 22 saw our choir taking part in the Stark County Music Festival. Finally, the entire student body was inspired by the beautiful choruses sung at the Easter chapel. Congratulations to a fine group for a wonderful year.

Mr. Hamilton, vocal director

The ingredients which go into the making of fine music are, first, a pleasant song, then a good director, and, finally, a group of people who love to sing. Glenwood was especially lucky this year because the girls' chorus had all of these requirements. The girls exhibited their lovely harmony in the "Autumn Festival of Song" and again in the Christmas recordings heard over the radio. The girls' ensemble gained a great deal of experience for the county vocal music contest by singing for various club meetings throughout the area. All these girls have found that chorus is more than just hard work . . . it is fun and enjoyment of the truly beautiful things in life.

OUR ONE-ACT PLAY

On April 12, the county one-act play contest was held at Perry High School. Glenwood's selection this year was "Winter Dust." During a blizzard, a young couple is stranded in the cabin of a mad scientist who plans to save mankind from itself by destroying the world. The cast included Harrier Goldsmith, Helen Holibaugh, Pam Croasdaile, Jeanne Robinson, Gail Corris, Jerry Thornton, and Greg Binus.

"A Date With Judy"

On February 26 and 27, when "A Date with Judy" appeared before two great audiences, there were many more problems than just hoping that they wouldn't forget their lines. The backstage crew had to see that no one accidentally rested an arm on the switchboard and suddenly plunged the stage into darkness, and also had to see that the telephone and doorbells didn't get mixed up and that they did ring! Props had to be in place, and makeup skillfully applied. The thousand and one details had to be exactly right, and, thanks to these people, they were.

Oogie (Greg Binus)

Judy (Joyce Boord)

The star of "A Date with Judy" is, of course, Judy, a sixteen-and-a-half-year-old who has the most fantastic imagination in the world. Her goal is to win a contest of soliciting the most subscriptions for the Charity Bazaar. The winner will be queen of the Charity Ball. Instead of just going out to get the contributions, she dreams up a lot of fantastic schemes which result in near catastrophe. When her arch-rival, Tootsie Whiteman, wins over Judy, the world almost comes to an end. Tootsie, however, comes down with a case of hives on the night of the dance and Judy becomes queen. The crisis is over but, probably, will never be forgotten.

Squawk Box

You can squawk all you want about how your government is being run. You can squawk to your family, your neighbors, the boys at the shop, or your barber—anyone who'll listen. Or you can praise your government. But your squawks and praise won't pay off unless you deposit them in the ballot box.

The right to a secret ballot gives you an actual voice in your government. By casting your ballot at election time, you can help decide who is going to run the show.

It's not like this in every country. Behind the Iron Curtain there's a lot to squawk about. But people have to keep it to themselves. If you complain out loud, you may get a one-way ticket to Siberia. At election time you may get a ballot, but there'll only be one person to vote for.

But in America you can choose. And choosing means that you've got to do some serious thinking to make sure you vote for the right man.

The secret ballot is a right you don't exercise every day. But the fact that elections are not daily occurrences makes the right all the more important. And the guy who fails to vote has lost the right to squawk.

Think it over—and then make sure you vote. It's your right; so treat it right.
